PREFATORY NOTE.

THE descendants of David Hutchins, of Yorkshire, England; and subsequently of Newfoundland; and of Boston and Attleboro, Mass., will be interested in the following genealogical outline. It is not a perfect or a completed work, but rather a beginning or a hint of what it is hoped others will continue and perfect.

In addition to the mere outline of names and dates, it is hoped that each one will contribute a few brief items of personal or family history and experience, in the hope that a more complete volume may be prepared at some future time.

With very little authentic matter in hand at the beginning of the undertaking, it has required a correspondence extending over several years to collect and verify the material which is now placed in print.

In the third generation the genealogy separates into three branches, in William, David and Ebenezer.

Otis Hutchins, of Westmoreland, N. H., in the fifth generation, son of Otis Hutchins of the fourth generation, and grandson of William Hutchins of the third generation, has given valuable information respecting that branch. Additional information respecting the descendants of William Hutchins may be sent to him at Westmoreland, N. H.

The writer is of the fifth generation. He is the son of Ezra Hutchins of the fourth generation, and grandson of David Hutchins of the third generation. Information respecting descendants of David Hutchins (brother of William and Ebenezer,) may be sent to him. See address below.

Most of the information respecting the descendants of Ebenezer Hutchins of the third generation, has been furnished by Roswell O. Hutchins, of the fifth generation. He is the son of Zara Hutchins of the fourth generation, and grandson of Ebenezer Hutchins of the third generation. Information respecting the descendants of Ebenezer Hutchins may be sent to him, at Rose Hill, Iowa.

Having done what I could in the preparation of this sketch, with limited time in a very busy life, and without much material at first hand, I send it to my kindred, many of whom I have never seen, in the hope that it may aid in a fuller acquaintance between those who share, by birth or marriage, in the relationship gained by lineal descent from David Hutchins, who was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1594.

Asenath W. Hutchins married Frederick Gerring of Gloucester, Mass., and they now reside in that city. Their post-office address is 25 Highland Street, East Gloucester, Mass.

PERSONAL. It is suggested in the prefatory note that each one furnish items of personal history. I add the following in the hope that others will do likewise.

I was born in Thetford, Vt., May 11, 1824, and am 61; was educated in the Vermont common schools, Westfield [Mass.]

State Normal School, and Brown University. Was a teacher for several years; taught in Bethel, Vt.; Woburn, Springfield, and Rockport, Mass.; Wilmington, Del.; Providence, R. I.; Boston, Mass. Was for some ten or twelve years member of the Boston School Board, and Chairman of the Committee on Text Books, and on the Normal School. Have taken some interest in Postal reforms and improvements, and in legislation and decisions respecting the same. Have been for some twenty years General Business Agent of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, in Boston.

Was twenty years a Deacon in the Shawmut Congregational Church, Boston, and am now a member of the Congregational Church in Arlington, Mass.

Have been twice married. Of the ten members of my family, parents and children, three of us only remain. My first wife died May 6, 1871; my oldest daughter, Mary Frances, May 26, 1875. A son was born and died Jan. 4, 1860. My three children by my second marriage have all died within the past four years, and their mother joined them September 20, of the present year. My two families have not been two, but one; they have been one in the bonds of mutual and helpful love which have bound them in our earthly home, and will, I trust, bind us all in heaven.

I have two children, now living. My daughter, Ella C. Hutchins, is with me, and has taken her mother's place in making our living place still to be a real home.

My son, Charles C. Hutchins is in Minneapolis, Minn.

My business address is No. 1 Somerset Street, Boston. Address of residence, Arlington Heights, Mass.

I thank all who have helped me to know somewhat of my relations, deceased or living. I trust that the good name and character which I find ascribed to the ancestors may be the possession of the descendants, to the end; and that this life may be for all of us a fitting preparation for that other, in whose records there shall be no items of death, where we shall be sharers together in the friendship and love of an unending life.

CHARLES HUTCHINS.
